Désamour

A film by Victor Bauby

7'40 · 2026 · France · Psychological drama, Fantasy

A young woman has lived with voices in her head since childhood. When she falls for one of them, the line between refuge and obsession begins to blur.

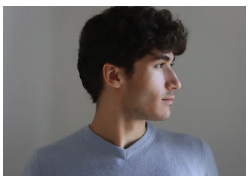

SYNOPSIS

A young woman has lived with voices in her head since childhood. When she falls under the spell of one of them, an intimate and devouring relationship slowly takes hold, blurring the line between refuge and obsession. As the presence consumes her mind and her body, she comes to understand that her only chance of breaking free will demand a sacrifice.
